

AccFino

Cookie Policy

Effective Date: 25 May 2026 | Version 1.0

1. What Are Cookies

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit AccFino. They help us recognise your browser, remember your preferences, maintain your login session, and analyse how our platform is used.

2. Cookies We Use

2.1 Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for AccFino to function. They cannot be disabled. They include:

- Session authentication tokens (maintain your login state)
- CSRF protection tokens (security)
- Load balancing cookies

2.2 Functional Cookies

These cookies remember your preferences:

- Language and region preferences
- UI preferences (sidebar collapsed/expanded, theme)

2.3 Analytics Cookies

With your consent, we use analytics cookies to understand usage patterns and improve AccFino. These do not identify you personally. You can opt out at any time.

3. Third-Party Cookies

Stripe (our payment processor) may set cookies when you access billing pages. These are governed by Stripe's Cookie Policy. AccFino does not use advertising or tracking cookies from third-party advertising networks.

4. Managing Cookies

You can control cookies through your browser settings. Disabling strictly necessary cookies will prevent AccFino from functioning correctly. You can withdraw analytics consent at any time through your account settings.
